

Chris Paris, a 1991 Seneca graduate is a model for the term student/athlete. Chris' sports activities included basketball as well as track & field. Lettering 3 years in basketball, he played the position of power forward and was Erie County scoring champion for the 1991 season with an average of 21 ppg and surpassing 1000 points, finishing his career with 1,174 points. Chris was also named 1st team all-county in 1991 and 2nd team all-county in 1990. Chris was part of the 1991 Erie County League champion track team with Seneca, participating in the long jump, triple jump and the high jump. He was the county champion in 1990 in the triple jump and went on to be a qualifier in states his senior year. He was also county champion in the high jump and long jump in 1991. Along with his 3 varsity letters in basketball, Chris lettered 4 years in track & field. His talents took him to the next level of play as a walk-on for the Edinboro Men's basketball team where he played for the Fighting Scots for 3 years. Chris' academic achievements include National Honor Society and was chosen to be on the Seneca Student Council. Since 2009 Chris has been the school principal at Wattsburg Area Middle School and remains active in basketball as a PIAA Basketball Official since 1999. Chris and his significant other, Stacy Hansen, live in the Erie area with Chris' three children: Madison, Ethan, and Alexander.