

Della Bayle, 1976 graduate of Seneca was the Bobcats first female “Super Star”. An all-around athlete, Della lettered in basketball, 1974,75,76, softball from 1973-1976 and volleyball 1975-76. In 1976 she led the Lady Cats to a district 10 championship in girls softball. Della’s skills earned her first team all-county in all three sports and was recognized for her accomplishments and was the recipient of the very first Della Bayle Sports award. Della attended Edinboro University on a sports scholarship in volleyball and turned down a very nice offer to play for the Adidas Volleyball Team at their Olympic Development Camp in 1977 because of her commitment to Edinboro. After college Della coached girls sports for Corry High School. She moved around the country working for top defense contractors as their Director of Purchasing. In 1988 Della moved to Canada, got married and now has two daughters Shana and Samantha, and a son D.J. In later years Della adding to her education and going on to work in the Home Care Hospital industry. Della says “Life has been good to me, and Athletics has made me a better person, a better employee and in all that I’ve done. Kris Homan Waskiewicz, Yvonne Sargent, and Patrick McLane are my HEROS”, Today, the Della Bayle Community Park in Wattsburg. is the hub for many local gatherings.