

Mark Eller, a 1972 graduate of Wattsburg started at the quarterback position in his junior and senior years at Wattsburg. His ability to pass kept defenses at bay allowing the team's running game to flourish. Mark's very first football competition came at the young age of 11, winning the passing competition at the Erie Stadium in the Erie Regional Ford Dealer's Punt Pass and Kick competition. Mark started organized football in 7th grade at Wattsburg, for Jr. High Coach Norm Carlin and continued his successful play through senior high school following in the footsteps of Wattsburg greats Dan Brumagin and Don Evan. As of his Hall of Fame induction in 2022, Mark remains the only quarterback from Wattsburg or Seneca to be chosen to play in the Erie County All Star game. Mark was quoted in the 75th Anniversary Save-an-Eye All Star book, when asked about his participation in the game, "This was My Superbowl". In 1975 Mark married Eva Daszynicz, a 1971 graduate of Wattsburg and reside in Orlando, Florida near their sons Jared and Tim. They are also the proud grandparents of Asher, Spencer and their sister, Rae. Mark has enjoyed a successful career in Real Estate in Florida New York and Pennsylvania and continues to enjoy helping those who want to buy or sell their home. Mark attributes his successes in life to all of those whom he has had the pleasure of calling friends. Mark's is proud to say that his biggest influence throughout life were his adopted parents, Art and Alliene Eller who were big fans of Bobcat sports.
